Lotus Printed Yoga Mat with Non-Slip Surface, 3mm

Begin your yoga workout the moment you unfold your mat. This two-sided textured mat supports balance and provides stability for an effective, focused training session. Zone into your yoga experience without worrying about slipping and sliding on your mat; the dual-texture design prevents unwanted movement so that you can focus on the movement of your body. Lotus Yoga's folding mat design makes this product the perfect companion for yoga on the go - bring your workout with you as you travel for business or pleasure to experience an uplifting training session in the gym, yoga studio, or at home. Three millimeters of padding allows you to maintain a close yet comfortable connection with the ground beneath you. Lotus Yoga is dedicated to providing you with greater peace of mind by creating quality equipment that facilitates an excellent experience, every time. When you are finished with your workout, simply fold your lightweight mat up for ultimate portability.
